EVENT-FUL WEEKEND

Each year, the Town of Vienna Parks and Recreation Department hosts approximately 50 community events. As proof that event season has shifted into high gear, three of those events will be held the second weekend of May.

"We're offering great reasons to get out and enjoy the community," says Recreation Coordinator Kathy Blevins.

Big Screen on the Green – May 13

The young and young-at-heart will enjoy watching a movie outdoors on the really big inflatable screen when Vienna Parks and Recreation and Navy Federal Credit Union present Walt Disney's Aladdin, which is rated G. Free popcorn while supplies last. Festivities begin on the Town Green at 8 p.m.; the movie will begin when it gets dark enough. Rain date is May 14.

Community Health and Wellness Fair for Mature Adults – May 14

Exercise demos (think zumba and chair exercises), screenings, give-aways, and information about services and programs for senior adults will all be part of the Community Health and Wellness Fair from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. at the Green Acres Senior Center, 4401 Sideburn Road in Fairfax. This event is co-sponsored with the City of Fairfax Parks and Recreation Department.

Teens on the Green – May 14

This annual event, hosted by Club Phoenix Teen Center, features local youth talent, including the Club Phoenix Teen Improv group, as well as exhibitors who market to youth. Enjoy performances, take on a fun challenge in the "The Wrecking Ball" inflatable, and browse vendor merchandise from 11 a.m.-4 p.m. on the Town Green.

The performance line-up features:

Bach to Rock 11 am

School of Rock noon

Adrenaline Dance 1 pm

Madison HS Band 1:45 pm
Pat Sommers Rock 2:45 pm

Vendors interested in participating in Teens on the Green should contact Brian Hanifin at bhanifin@viennava.gov or 703-255-6352.

All events are free and open to the public and generally rain or shine, unless otherwise noted; call 703-255-6399 for severe weather updates. Bring blankets, chairs, and friends, but no alcohol or pets please. For more information, call 703-255-6360.
